San Jose State Team Wins 11 Medals at Collegiate Nationals

(Tinley Park, Ill.) – Athletes from San Jose State University dominated the Collegiate National Judo Championships Sunday in Tinley Park, Ill., winning 11 medals and the overall team title while Yosh Uchida (San Jose, Calif.) received Coach of the Year honors

San Jose team members Travis Stevens (San Jose, Calif./81kg), Tomoyo Yoshinaga (San Jose, Calif./70kg), Corinne Geier (San Jose, Calif./63kg) and Marti Malloy (San Jose, Calif./57kg) each took home gold medals.

Second-ranked U.S. athlete Malloy scored waza-ari (half-point) early in her final match before throwing Heather Swett (Medford, Mass./Salem State College) for ippon (instant win) to claim her second consecutive collegiate title. Stevens also defended his 2005 title, defeating #5-ranked Yuko Sin (Glenville, N.Y./SUNY Albany) in the final.

Malloy was named Outstanding Female Player of the tournament while Stevens received the Tom Lambert Award for being the event's most inspirational player.

Athletes from the United States Military Academy at West Point placed second in the team competition, claiming four overall medals, including a gold won by Michael Lee (West Point, N.Y./West Point/90kg) over 2004 Champion Atsushi Yoshinaga (Lombard, Calif./San Jose State University).

In the men's 73kg division, Eduardo Novoa (Colorado Springs, Colo./University of Colorado – Colorado Springs), a Chilean athlete training at the Olympic Training Center, defeated #7-ranked Michael Eldred (Fruitland, Idaho/Boise State University) to win gold.

Eduardo's brother Felipe Novoa (Colorado Springs, Colo./University of Colorado – Colorado Springs) defeated his OTC teammate Joshua O'Neil (Racine, Wis./Pikes Peak Community College) with a throw for ippon to win the 66kg division and the Outstanding Male Player Award.

Djamaldin Aliev (Greenwood Village, Colo./Metro State College – Denver), a 2005 World Team member, won his first collegiate title, throwing Brent Carr (West Point, N.Y./West Point) for ippon in 14 seconds.

On the women's side, OTC athletes Anna Palmer (Colorado Springs, Colo./University of Colorado – Colorado Springs/52kg), a 2004 Junior World Team member, won her first collegiate title while Jane Lock (Colorado Springs, Colo./Pikes Peak Community College/70kg) took a silver medal in her first collegiate event.

Ann Shiraishi (Elk Grove, Calif./Sacramento City College), 2005 Nationals silver medalist, won her second collegiate title with a win over Tabitha Lum (San Jose, Calif./San Jose State University) at 48kg. Nausikaa Davis (Renton, Wash./Highline Community College/57kg) went 4-1 to win bronze in her division as well as the Jeremy Glick Sportsmanship Award.
